- Treasurer's Report: No Treasurer's report today.
- Cookies: Thank you Doug B. and Susan for bringing in goodies. Next week is Joanne.
- Guests: No guests today. No new members.
- Website: The website and facebook are up-to-date.
- Business:
- Theater Sarnia Logo – Some cut pieces need rounding and sanding. Please see Dennis if you want to help out.
 - Veteran 'Stackable Snowman' – We are collecting finished snowmen for the Veteran's. Thank you all who are participating in this initiative.
 - Brigden Fair – Reminder : Early bird entry deadline is Sept 25th. Noah's Ark will be there!
 - Business Cards – We have a lot of business cards now. Please take cards to pass along to friends.
 - Dremel – Harvey has purchased the Dremel for $10. This Dremel was donated to the club by Gord last week.
 - Theme Day – These will start in Oct. No theme day in Sept.
 - Mystery Box – Garry opened the box, it was a very sad looking Christmas tree. Our club will transform this 'Charlie Brown tree' into a spectacular one-of-a-kind tree with hand-carved decorations. This tree and decorations will be raffled at the club's Christmas party. Next week, Christmas ornament blanks will be available to carve...stay tuned.
- Tech talk: Terry spoke about Jane Fonda and how she is keeping active.
